International Guard Services

Professional Security Guards You Can Trust

Why you need us:

Whether your facility is a preschool, high school, or an institution of higher learning, IGS Security Services has the experience and expertise to reach your security objectives. When providing school security services to educational facilities, there are numerous assets to protect. Everything from classroom equipment to the students themselves, which is why IGS creates security solution for your facility that ensures all your valuable assets are protected.

Why we are better:

International Guard Services is constantly assessing and reassessing our security personnel. Our first assessment is through an extensive hiring process. We follow up the state mandated requirements with various verbal, written and communications tests ensuring a well-versed security professional. Every account has a supervisor who performs quality control audits and moral checks. The supervisors are in direct contact with the owner of our company, making needed changes a swift process. The end goal is to meet our client's security objectives with the right security personnel.
